Appointment of Chairman

Latin Resources Limited is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Roderick Brown as Non-Executive Chairman.

Rod Brown is a mining engineer by profession and has extensive experience in general management. He has held various senior management positions including Managing Director with companies involved in engineering, mining and construction and manufacturing in the USA, Europe and Australia.

Rod has 20 years experience as Company Director and is currently Chairman of RCR Tomlinson Ltd and Chairman of Immersive Technologies. Mr Brown's wealth of experience and involvement in the mining industry is a valuable addition to the Board of Latin Resources.

Latin Resources is currently in the process of preparing for its IPO and expects to list on the ASX in August 2010.

Kind regards,

Chris Gale
Managing Director

About Latin Resources

Latin Resources is a private Perth based, Iron Ore and Gold focused exploration Company with a number of attractive mineral projects in Peru. Latin Resources has rights to acquire a controlling interest in a cornerstone project, has been granted 100% controlled mineral concessions of 33,600 hectares with 39,700 hectares in application in highly prospective iron ore districts and is in the advance stages of negotiation on various other Iron Ore and Gold projects.

Latin Resources intends to list on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) in 2010.
