Change of Company Secretary and Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

Latin Resources Limited is pleased to announce the appointment of Jim Moran as Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer. Mr Moran holds a Bachelor of Business degree, is a qualified CPA, a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and has a Diploma with the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Mr Moran has gained 25 years resources sector experience throughout Australia and internationally in Ghana, Mongolia, China and New Zealand. In previous CFO/FC roles he has had exposure across the resources spectrum covering greenfields exploration, project evaluation, construction, production and the closure of projects. He has wide experience in corporate areas covering capital raisings, investor relations, financial reporting, treasury management, compliance and risk management. In previous roles he has also been responsible for project accounting, budgeting, administration, supply logistics, human resources functions, industrial relations, contract negotiations and management.

Mr Moran replaces Mr Morgan Barron who resigns to continue other business interests.

The Board would like to express its sincere gratitude to Mr Barron for his diligence and efforts in assisting the Company with the recent IPO and ASX listing.
